SUICIDE THE SUBJECT OF THIS WEEK'S SERMON

In the Olden Time, Before the Dawn Courage-Moral Cowardica-

BECOKLYN. N. Y., Aug. 12.-Rev. Dr. Talmage, who is now abroad, has selected se the subject for to-day's sermon through the press, the word "Suicide," the text being Acia XVI: 27, 26: "He drew out his sword and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had fled. But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no barm."

Here is a would-be suicide arrested in his deadly attempt. He was a sheriff and secording to the Roman law a bail if himself must suffer the punishment due an escaped prisoner; and if the prisoner breaking jail was sentenced to be endungeoned for three or four years, then the sheriff must be endungeoned for three or four years: and if the prisoner breaking jail was to have suffered capital punishment, then the sheriff must suffer capital punishment.

The sheriff had received especial charge to keep a sharp lookout for Paul and Silus The government had about whom there seemed to be something strange and supernatural

My friends, if ever your life through its abrasions and its molestations should seem to be unbearable, and you are tempted to quit it by your own behest do not consider yourselves as worse than others. Christ himself was tempted to cast himself from the roof of the temple: but as he resisted, so resht ye. Christ came to medicine all our wounds. In your trouble prescribe life instead of death. People who have had it worse than you will ever have it have gone songful on their way. Remember that God keeps the c'ironology of your life with as much precision as he keeps the chronology of nations, your death as well as your birth, your grave as well as your cradle. Why was it that at midnight, just at midnight, the destroying angel struck the blow that set the baracites free from bondage? The four hundred and thirty years were up at 13 o'clock that night. The four hundred and thirty years were not up at 11. and I o'clock would have been tardy and too late. The four hundred and thirty years were up at 12 o'clock, and the destroying angel struck tha blow and Israel was free. And God. knows just the hour when it is time to lead you up from earthly bondage. By his grace make not the worst of things, but the best of them. If you must take the pills do not chew them. Your everlasting rewards will accord with your carthly perturbations, just as Calus gave to Agrippa a chain of gold as heavy as had been his chain of iron. For your asking you may have the same grace that was given to the Italian martyr, Algerius, who, down in the darkest of dangeons, dated his letter from "the detectable orchard of the Leonine prison."

And remember that this brief life of ours is surrounded by a rim, a very thin Lut very important rim, and close up to that rim is a great elernity, and you had letter keep out of it notil God breaks that rim and separates this from that. To get rid of the sorrows of earth, do not rosh into greater sorrows To get rld of a swarm of summer insects, leap not into a jungle of Bengal tigers

There is a sorrowless world, and it from the abutment of a bridge, by that hereafter be blissful with is so radiant that the noonday aun is frearms. More cases of 'felo de se' out reference to how we live only the lowest doorstep and the in the last two years of the world's and how we die, why not move aurora that lights up our northern heavens, confounding astronomers as to what it can be, is the waving of the banners of the procession come to take the conquerors home from church militant to church triumphant, and you and I have ten thousand reasons for wanting to go there, but we will never get there either by self-immolstion or imperitence. All our sins alain by the Christ who came to do that thing, we want to go in at just the time divinely arranged, and then the clang of the sepulchral gates behind us will be overpowered by the clang of the opening of the solid pearl before us. O God, whatever others may choose, give me a Christian's life, Christian's death, a Christian's burial, a Christian's immortality!
